

Hearts for Tracy

This heart pattern means a lot. Tracy who is a friend of mine was diagnosed with stage 4 breast cancer at the age of 33. She is to have a double mastectomy on November 11, 2009. Keep her in your prayers. A portion of the money from the sale of this heart will go to Tracy. You are MORE THAN welcome to make some to send along to put in to the fund-raiser. Just mail them to me at

You will be credited as the tatter and you will receive a little something for your kindness. I thank you in advance!! You can come visit the fund-raising shop at www.pinkforlink.etsy.com

Tracy's brother decided to support his sister and made a my-space just for her and the campaign ``Pink for Link`` If you are interested in becoming bald to support Tracy just visit <http://www.myspace.com/thebaldwall>. We also have a blog-spot <http://pink-for-link.blogspot.com>/which is under construction at the moment you are welcome to join up and subscribe to help us help Tracy and women everywhere suffering this horrible disease.

This heart I have tatted in 4 different sizes of thread. All hand dyed by me. The size 10 measures approximately 2 -3/4" in length, the size 50 measures approximately 1 -1/4" in length. The pattern is pretty easy to follow and the possibilities are endless. You are welcome to add beads or extra picots to this heart. The design is mine and I would like credited for it
